Applied Accounting Policies

The annual report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions for Class B companies.

General about recognition and measurement:

Assets are recognised in the balance sheet when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the Company and the assets can be measured reliably.

Liabilities are recognised in the balance sheet when the Company as a result of a past event has a legal or actual obligation and it is probable that future economic benefits will flow from the Company and the value of the liability can be measured reliably.

Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at cost price. Measurement has subsequently taken place as described for each item below.

By recognition and measurement predictable losses and risks, that arise before preparation of the annual report, are taken into account and which confirm or invalidate conditions existing at the balance sheet date.

In the income statement, income is recognised as it is earned, whereas costs are recognised with the amounts relating to the financial year. Value adjustments of financial assets and liabilities are recognised in the income statement as financial income or financial expenses.

Income Statement:

Other operating income

Other operating income includes refund of costs.

Other external expenses:

Other external costs include costs for distribution, sales, advertisement, administration, office rent, loss on debtors etc.

Staff costs:

Staff costs include wages and salaries as well as social spending etc. to the company's staff.

Financial entries:

Financial entries include interest income and expenses, realized and unrealized capital gain and loss concerning debt and transactions in foreign currency, and surcharges and refunds in connection with taxes.

Tax:

Tax on the taxable income is allocated by 22,0%. Additions, deductions and allowances relating to tax are included under financial entries.

Deferred tax is allocated with 22,0% of all temporary differences between book values and tax values. Adjustment of deferred tax is included in the income statement under "Tax on net profit for the year".

Deferred tax assets, including the tax value of tax loss carried forward, are recognised at the value at which the asset is expected realised, either against deferred tax liabilities or as net assets.

Balance sheet:

Tangible fixed assets:

Operating equipment and inventory with an acquisition price under DKK 13,900 are charged to the income statement in the year of acquisition.

Expenses for computer programmes (software) under DKK 13,900 and costs of development, customisation, etc. of computer systems are charged to the income statement in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

Applied accounting policies - continued

Profit or loss on disposals of tangible and financial fixed assets is stated as the difference between the selling price less selling costs and the book value at the time of sale. Profit or loss is recognised in the income statement under depreciation.

Receivables:

Receivables are measured at amortised cost, which usually corresponds to the nominal value less provision for bad debts.

Liabilities:

Liabilities are recognised at amortized cost, which usually corresponds to the nominal value.

Conversion of foreign currencies:

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recognised at the transaction date. Receivables, payables and other monetary items denominated in foreign currencies that have not been settled at the balance sheet date, are measured at the exchange rate at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences arising between the transaction date and the date of payment/the balance sheet date respectively are recognised in the income statement as financial entries.
