Management's Review

L'Homme de Cuir's research and development phase has taken longer than expected. More research is needed in order to deliver the highest quality products.

Furthermore, we are trying out several different suede and leather suppliers in order to be able to have sustainable, enduring and high quality materials.

L'Homme de Cuir has temporarily moved to service consultancy in order to finance the R&D processes.

It is expected that L'Homme de Cuir will be in stores from October 2020.

Ledelsen anser betingelserne for at udelade revision for opfyldt.
