Notes

1 Accounting policies

The annual report of Cargill Scandinavia ApS for 2021/22 has been prepared in accordance with the provisions applying to reporting class B entities under the Danish Financial Statements Act with opt-in from higher reporting classes.

The accounting policies used in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those of last year.

Foreign currency translation

On initial recognition, transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates at the transaction date. Foreign exchange differences arising between the exchange rates at the transaction date and the date of payment are recognised in the income statement as financial income or financial expenses.

Receivables, payables and other monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rates at the balance sheet date. The difference between the exchange rates at the balance sheet date and the date at which the receivable or payable arose or was recognised in the latest financial statements is recognised in the income statement as financial income or financial expenses.

Income statement

Other operating income

Other operating income comprises items secondary to the activities of the entity.

Other external costs

Other external costs comprise costs related to administration, office premises, etc.

Financial expenses

Financial expenses comprise interest expense, financial costs regarding payables and transactions denominated in foreign currencies.

Tax on profit for the year

Tax for the year comprises current corporation tax for the year and changes in deferred tax, including changes in tax rates. The tax expense relating to the profit/loss for the year is recognised in the income statement, and the tax expense relating to amounts directly recognised in equity is recognised directly in equity.

The Company is jointly taxed with the Danish entities of the Cargill Group. The current Danish corporation tax is allocated between the jointly taxed Danish companies in proportion to their taxable income (full absorption with refunds for tax losses). This means that companies with tax losses receive refunds from the other jointly taxed companies.

Notes

Balance sheet

Receivables

Receivables are measured at amortised cost.

Cash at bank and in hand

Cash in hand equivalents comprise cash.

Corporation tax and deferred tax

Current tax payable and receivable is recognised in the balance sheet as tax computed on the taxable income for the year, adjusted for tax on the taxable income of prior years and for tax paid on account.

Deferred tax is measured using the balance sheet liability method on all temporary differences between the carrying amount and the tax value of assets and liabilities based on the planned use of the asset or settlement of the liability.

Deferred tax assets, including the tax value of tax loss carryforwards, are recognised at the expected value of their utilisation within the foreseeable future; either as a set-off against tax on future income or as a set-off against deferred tax liabilities in the same legal tax entity. Any deferred net assets are measured at net realisable value.

Deferred tax is measured in accordance with the tax rules and at the tax rates applicable at the balance sheet date when the deferred tax is expected to crystallise as current tax. Changes in deferred tax as a result of changes in tax rates are recognised in the income statement or equity, respectively.

Liabilities

Liabilities are measured at net realisable value.

2 Disclosure of material uncertainties regarding going concern

At May 31 2021, the Company's equity was negative by DKK -59,257 thousand (31 May 2020: DKK -59,256 thousand), and the Company is subject to the provision of the Danish Companies Act regarding loss of Company capital. The Company is financed through the Parent Company, which has confirmed subordination of the underlying debt. Based on this confirmation, Management assesses the Company as going concern.

3 Equity

The share capital consists of 75.000 shares of a nominal value of DKK 40 each, equivalent to DKK 3.000 thousand.

All shares rank equally.

4 Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities

The Company is jointly taxed with the Danish entities of the Cargill Group with Cargill Nordic A/S as the administrative company. The Company has unlimited joint and several liability for Danish corporation taxes and withholding taxes on dividends, interest and royalties under the joint taxation scheme.
